Day 01 ARRIVE KUALA LUMPUR / MELAKA Arrival, meet and greet at KUL Airport. Private transfer to Melaka approximately 2hrs drive. Check in upon arrival and free time to discover Melaka on foot. Founded in 1400, the Sultanate of Melaka was once the greatest and most powerful empire and seaport in South East Asia. For hundreds of years, the Portuguese, Dutch and British successively established supremacy over the wealth of Malacca's silk and spice trade. This rich heritage is evident in the unique mix of architectural styles. Visit the street of Harmony where you see the oldest Chinese temple, mosque and Hindu Temple in Malaysia, the Dutch Stadhuys and Porta de Santiago. Walk through the ruins of St Paul's Church where St Francis Xavier was once buried. Melaka is also one of the birthplaces of the culture of the 'Babas' - a mix of Chinese and Malay cultures uniquely its own. Overnight (-/-/-)

Day 02 MELAKA - SRI MENANTI / KUALA LUMPUR A drive to Sri Menanti for her Royal Museum is an amazing experience which not many tourist have the chance to see it.
