This 5 stories wooden palace is built with wooden pegs, using no nails or screws. It has 99 solids timber pillars, standing 65 feet tall and furnished with matching furniture and bed chambers. Other royal belonging like costumes and documents of the royal of lineage is also available. Check in upon arrival and free time to discover Melaka on foot on your own. Founded in 1400, the Sultanate of Melaka was once the greatest and most powerful empire and seaport in South East Asia. This rich heritage is evident in the unique mix of architectural styles. Visit the street of Harmony where you see the oldest Chinese temple, mosque and Hindu Temple in Malaysia, the Dutch Stadhuys and Porta de Santiago. Walk through the ruins of St Paul's Church where St Francis Xavier was once buried. Melaka is also one of the birthplaces of the culture of the 'Babas' - a mix of Chinese and Malay cultures uniquely its own. Overnight (-/-/-)

Day 02 MELAKA - Today will be a day for leisurely ride on a bicycle through the less "touristy" part of Melaka. See lush paddy fields and maybe even do a spot of rubber tapping. The entire tour expected to last about three hours and in a loop that stretches some twenty kilometers mostly off-road. The trail has been carefully chosen to suit the ability of almost everyone.
